PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION IS RE-ORGANIZED.

The Cedarville Protective Association was re-organized Saturday night when a meeting was held in the mayor's office. O. A. Dobbins was elected president, Burton Turner, vice president; J. C. Townsend, secretary and treasurer.

About 75 members are now in good standing and it is expected that the number can be made 100 in a few days. No farmer can afford to ignore this organization. A reward of $100 will be paid for the arrest and conviction of any thief who takes property of an member of the association.

A committee was appointed to confer with Sheriff Funderburg as to the purchase of blood hounds.

The directors chosen are C. E. Cooley and G. H. Crouse for three years; Morgan Kennon and Amos Frame for two years; Elder Corry and Charles Graham for one year.

W. B. Bryson, president of the Greene County Farm Bureau, states to the Herald that he would like to see this organization become a county affair and be connected with the Farm Bureau, especially if the purchase of dogs is contemplated. This question will have to be worked out between the members of the Protective Association and the Farm Bureau.

UNCLE JOHN'S POEM.

If you find yourself a-sinkin' in the quagmire of despair, till you got to spend yer energies in comin' up for air—remember, that it's judgment that gets you anywhere.

SWIN OUT!

If 'th' worrier allers prods you when awake, or when in bed, an' the hall-stones of foreboding keep a-painin' thru yer head—remember that a steady heart don't win yer daily bread.

KICK LOOSE!

The problems in this life of our'n was made to be attacked; to solve 'em as you meet 'em, makes you happier in fact—an' oblivion will be sweeter, when yer mortal doom has cracked. KEEP SMILIN'!

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS

We have installed a modern stereotype department to cast cuts for advertisers, or do casting for the trade at reasonable prices, in fact the lowest price to be had in the county.

We also have for advertisers a weekly matrix service that enables the advertiser to get the very latest illustrations for ads. All our cuts can be cast type-high or mounted on wood base. This new department is at your service.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

The school enrollment this year is about 400. Of this number 93 are enrolled in High School and 20 in the Country School. The High School has grown from 60 to 98 in the last three years. There are 23 tuition pupils in the High School and 2 in the grades.

The work of the school year started off splendidly. Each teacher knew what was to do and was ready to do it. Although there are a few new teachers the work moves along as if they had been acquainted with the school and pupils previously.

Monday evening, Sept. 19, a representative of the Keaton View Company demonstrated their stereographic outfit to the teachers of the school. The teachers and Supt. feel that it is time to have more material for Visual Education.

The school therefore, has assumed the responsibility of purchasing 600 stereographic views to be used in the regular classroom work. We should be very glad to have anyone come to see this new feature of our work.

We, the Cedarville High School most heartily welcome as new tuition pupils: William Hayslett, Edwin Pfeiffer, Frances Anderson, Anna Hackett, Donald Smith, Kenneth Bryant, Emerson McCrory, Harold Mills, Wilmar McCarty, Herbert Stover, Helen Thompson, Marjorie Donohue, Kenneth Waddle, Ruth Mills and Thelma Peters.

The Seniors under the supervision of Miss Somers, have arranged the program. A large attendance is desired.

Thursday evening, Sept. 16th the Seniors enjoyed an informal party at the home of Dorothy Farr. It is evident that one show, a few "hot-dogs" and water melons are quite enough for noble Seniors.

Friday evening September 16th the Sophomores enjoyed a hay-ride to Tindall's melen patch located near Selma. The road was long and the night short but in spite of all this they report a "fine time."

GET HIGHER RATES AFTER COMPANIES CONSOLIDATE.

The merger of Bell and Independent or Home Companies in this state has been approved by the State Public Utilities Commission. No doubt one phone system properly operated is enough but the first thing done by the Bell people was to get an increase in the rates for business and residence lines in Springfield. Business houses could afford to pay more but residence phones should not have to pay an increase when by the merger much of the double over-head expense has been eliminated.

LOOK AFTER TAIL LIGHTS.

Marshall Myers calls attention to the law governing tail lights on automobiles and that many owners are warned to comply with the law. Failure to comply will mean a penal ty.

Progress Of College Campaign

The Cedarville College Campaign has now reached a total of $13,470.50 and it still lacks $65,529.50 of reaching the goal of $80,000. It is absolutely necessary to secure this remaining amount.

The college authorities, with the present funds, cannot more than start the re-modelling of the Alford Memorial in the spring of 1922. The $20,000 to be secured from Mr. Alford on condition that the college authorities raise a like amount by the end of the present year, will have to be put into the new Science Hall, that is, it will have to be expended on remodeling the present gymnasium known as the Alford Memorial.

That will leave the College without a gymnasium unless the remaining $65,000 is secured before the Spring of 1922. It would be little short of a calamity to have no gymnasium, for it would mean that the program of athletics so well and largely initiated this year under Coach Blackburn, would have to cease. It would mean, not having a gymnasium, that basketball and gymnastic exercises would have to be discontinued, and athletics would be confined entirely to outdoor exercise, and then only in seasonable weather, until such time as enough money could be raised, amounting to $40,000 to erect a new gymnasium.

About one hundred persons in this town and community have not subscribed to the college fund. Nearly all, if not all, of these are friends of the college and are able to subscribe something. If they would subscribe what they could, and do it at once, it would probably enable us to ensure the securing of the Alford pledge of $20,000 by the end of this year. Then again, let us urge upon all who have subscribed to try to secure subscriptions from friends close at home and at a distance. It each one of us who is interested in the college will try to do this, quite a sum of money can yet be secured. Finally, remember that the future of the college is not secure until the remaining $65,000 has been raised. Let us not rest, night or day, until this amount is raised.

Yours sincerely,
J. C. Townsend

Fordson TRACTOR

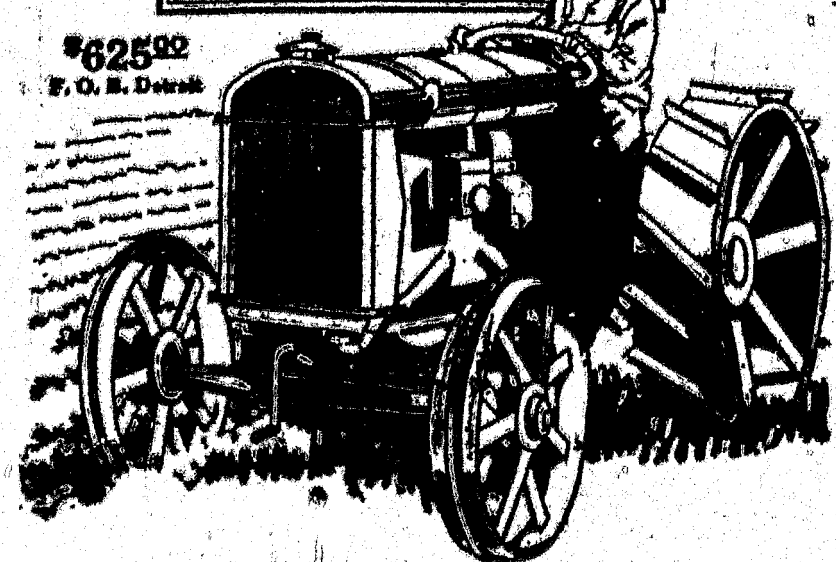

Do More in a Day~ Do It Better

One man with a FORDSON TRACTOR can do more work easier and with less expense than two men can do with horses. This means that you with a FORDSON TRACTOR can actually raise more crops, with less work and less expense. And this means that your profits will be greater with fewer hours of work.

Besides the FORDSON will take care of every power job on the farm. It's light, alert, flexible in control and operation, yet it has power and endurance to spare.

You should see the FORDSON at work to appreciate its wonderful capabilities. We will gladly give you the proofs if you will ask for them, either by a personal call, phone or post card.

 TIME TO STOP IT.

Our attention has been called to the fact that strangers have been bothering people, begging for money for car fare. This class of travelers should not be recognized. If they are worthy there is a way to get them aid without giving them money. For several days two strangers have been calling about town for money to get to Pittsburg. Two other men, either of the four, big enough and strong enough to do two days work in one, have been begging food. A hungry man should be given some aid, but not money. A charge of interfering against strangers without employment will probably cause these men to shun the town.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL.

Mrs. Mary A. Stine, aged 75, widow of J. H. Stine, died Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital in Dayton after a general breakdown in health. The deceased was twice married, her first husband being Henry Gordon. Thirty years ago she married J. H. Stine and his death occurred eight years ago. Three of the nine children by the first union survive: Wm. Gordon, Wayneville; Mrs. J. J. Ryan, Xenia; Mrs. C. W. McMillan, of this place. The funeral was held yesterday from the home of Mrs. Ryan. The deceased and her husband resided here for many years where Mr. Stine worked in the paper mill.

NEAR EAST DRIVE COMING.

The call for aid has come for the people of Near East, particularly the Armenians that are being crushed by the Turks. These people form a Christian nation and could support themselves if given protection, which has not been done by the larger powers. We understand that a drive is to be made by the Farm Bureau and granges for two cars of corn and one of wheat. If the larger nations do not provide protection for these Christian people it looks as if America must alone give them aid at this time.

Sunday School Lesson

REVIEW.

GOLDEN TEXT—As we have therefore especially let us do good unto all men, especially them who are of the household of faith.—Gal. 6:10.

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 25

REVIEW.

Two methods may profitably be employed in the review of the lessons of the Quarter. First, a biographical sketch of the Apostle Paul, such as his birth, home training, education, conversion, teaching and missionary work. Second, the leading teachings of the lesson, which may be made prominent by summarizing the facts of each lesson and stating the most vital teaching thereof. The first method can be used in reviewing the lessons in all departments and grades, and can be easily adapted by any teacher. The second method will be preferred by many in the senior and adult classes.

The following is given by way of suggestion:

Lesson 1. Paul was born at Tarsus, of Hebrew parentage. Being brought up in a pious home, he was thoroughly imbued with the spirit of devotion to the Scriptures. He was educated at Jerusalem under the tutelage of Gamaliel. The chief text book was the Bible. In addition to his religious training he was taught a trade which came in very useful later, enabling him to support himself while preaching the gospel.

Lesson 2. In Paul's training as a Pharisee, he was taught to love his own nation, to love God's law, and to be zealous toward God, that is, to have a passion for God and His work.

Lesson 3. Paul's burning hatred of Jesus incited him to endeavor to stamp out the Nazarene heresy. While on the way to Damascus, with authority to arrest and imprison the believers, men and women, he was stricken with blindness and fell to the earth, and Jesus spoke to him from heaven, saying, "Why persecutest thou me?" In response to the heavenly instruction he went to Damascus, where Ananias baptized him, and he received his sight and was filled with the Holy Spirit.

Lesson 4. Paul straightway preached Christ in the synagogue. Like everyone who is really converted he began to tell of the newly found Saviour. After a lengthy sojourn in Arabia he visited Jerusalem where he was believed by his brethren when suspected by the disciples.

Lesson 5. When the religious awakening at Antioch had come to the attention of the Jerusalem church, Barnabas was sent to inspect it, and seeing help was needed he brought Paul from Tarsus to be his helper.

Lesson 6. After teaching a year at Antioch, the Spirit moved the church to send forth Barnabas and Paul to evangelize the heathen. The church sent her best men.

Lesson 7. As Paul and Barnabas were preaching at Iconium, an attempt was made to worship them as gods. Their efforts were frustrated by the tact of Paul. Soon after this Paul was stoned, showing that satanic worship can soon be turned into satanic hate.

Lesson 8. Paul's preaching the grace of God to the heathen brought on a controversy in the church at Antioch. The question in dispute was: "Shall Gentiles be required to keep the Mosaic law as a condition of salvation?" The decision was in favor of Paul, and so Paul and Barnabas were free to begin their second missionary journey.

Lesson 9. The Spirit forbade Paul to tarry longer in the provinces of Asia preaching the Gospel, and by a vision of a man from Macedonia pleading for help, he was called into Europe.

Lesson 10. The casting out of a demon from a young woman resulted in landing Paul and Silas in jail. They were miraculously delivered and the jailer was converted.

Lesson 11. Being driven out from Thessalonica and Berea, Paul went to Athens where he preached the gospel on Mars' Hill. The result of his preaching here was that some mocked, some procrastinated, and some believed.

Lesson 12. Paul in this lesson sets forth the grand principles which should govern the believer's life, the sum and substance of which is: "Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."

The Name of Jesus.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow: and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.—Philippians 2: 9-11.

Trust in God.

Trust in God for great things. With your five loaves and two fishes He will show you a way to feed thousands.—Romans 8:26-27.

Her idea of it.

Myra had a much about brother's being cross on account of cutting teeth, and appreciating the honor of being allowed to push his perambulator in front of the house she was quite prepared to answer an inquiring woman as to his crying, which she did thus: "He thinks him's got a bad cold, but maybe it's 'cause him's hatched' teeth."

The Works of Peace.
There remains to us a great duty of defense and preservation; and there is open to us also a noble pursuit, to which the spirit of the times strongly invites us. Let us advance the arts of peace and the works of peace. Let us develop the resources of our land, call forth its powers, build up its institutions, promote all its great interests, and see whether we, also, in our day and generation, may not perform something worthy to be remembered.—Daniel Webster.

Amateur Nuremberg Token.
Crushed and battered, a rare coin has been discovered in a garden at Llanfair, a village near the Roman city of Caerwent, midway between Chepstow and Newport. It has, proved, after careful examination, to be a Nuremberg token, and was minted in 1749 by Christopher Schuler (who was born at Annaberg), at Tintern, whence a few years previously the monks had been driven out. Schuler found the mill ponds and fish ponds left by the monks ready to his hand; from the forest of Dean he obtained bar iron and wood for charcoal from the forest of Westford, which is in the neighborhood of Llanfair. Cases are on record at Nuremberg coins having been discovered in London, and as far north as Lincoln, but this is the first instance of such a coin being found in the western counties or in south Wales.—London Times.

He Has It Coming.
"Should uglier husbands have heavier damages?" was a question raised in a recent divorce action. The better opinion is that the fact that the ugly man must have gone out of his way to get married should tell against him.—Punch.

Why We Feature $25=$30=$35 SUITS AND TOPCOATS

WE EMPHASIZE these three lines because we believe they meet the price that most men would like to pay if they were assured that it would gain them a satisfying standard of quality, style and wearing service.

We've had these garments made with this idea in mind. Planned the styles in correct fashion, personally selected the fabrics, carefully exacted tailoring security, then shaved our profit down to a whisper so that we could deliver unmatched quality at these very moderate prices. You'll like the prices because you'll like the clothes at

$25 $30 $35

Why We Feature Hart Schaffner & Marx and Michaels-Stern Clothes

We emphasize these lines because there are lots of men who want nothing but the very best the market affords—best in style, best in weaves, finest tailoring refinements and smartest exclusive pattern effects. Men who have such ideas are accustomed to coming here and until America produces better clothes than these they'll continue to come here and we'll continue to feature these makes. They're priced at

$35 $40 $45 to $60

We want you to understand how we feel about the goods we sell. You are to bring back anything that isn't satisfactory and we'll refund the money readily.

MAY TEST LIGHT LAW.

There are so many protests being filed over the new law governing automobile license that the state department is up in the air but has to stand by the law. Public sentiment is largely against the law as it is for many of the licensees that have been approved do not stop the glare at night. Others have so cut down the light for the driver that driving at night is dangerous.

Mrs. E. E. McFarland entertained the Home Culture Club Tuesday afternoon.

The Saver Makes The Spendthrift Breaks

The man who spends less than he earns is a civic asset, while he who spends his all may some day become a civic liability. The man who looks into the future with confidence, while he who spends faces the cold charity of his friends and relatives—or the poorhouse. The optimist is the man with a bank account, while the pessimist is a spendthrift. Which kind of a man are you? Open a Savings Account at this association—it is sufficient—it will earn 6 per cent compound interest and pay rich dividends in happiness.

TAX RATES FOR COUNTY ARE SOMEWHAT HIGHER

E. O. Wood county auditor has given out the tax rates for the districts in the county, approved by the State Tax Commission. The rate in Xenia city will be $35 a thousand $3 higher than last year. The following are the tax rates for the other districts in the county with a comparison of last year:

1920	1921
$20.00	Jamestown $20.53
$18.50	Cedarville $21.00
$16.00	Clifton $17.40
$12.00	Yellow Springs $20.00
$19.50	Osborn $20.00
$15.40	Fairfield $16.40
$16.80	Spring Valley $16.50
$17.30	Bellbrook $17.00
$20.40	Bowersville $17.40

We understand the state has levied a tax on the property in the village to cover our share of the cost of the Columbus Pike improvement. The taxpayers in the township and county do not have to pay on our street improvements, so why should the people of the village have to be taxed for a public highway? There is a law that permits the highway department to improve connecting streets with improved roads but such has not been done by the state.

FOUR CARS CATTLE ARRIVE

J. B. Rife and T. B. Andrew have returned from Kansas City where four cars of cattle were purchased. The shipment arrived Saturday and the average weight was better than 1100. These cattle will be grazed and fed for a short time. Fat cattle in the western market can be purchased for the same price as feeders. Mr. Rife states that the west has not only a big corn crop but much old corn on hand. The cattle situation the past two years has been unfavorable for profitable feeding and westerners are not taking any chances on another loss. George Hammon received one car of the cattle.

VICTORY THEATRE NOTES.

One of the big moments of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" at the Victory Theatre, Dayton, week of September 26, with matinee daily except Monday, is the climax of the first act, when a Frenchwoman, inspired by the patriotic emotion that sweeps over the big Parisian cafe, on the announcement of war, springs to her feet, seizes a French flag and, waving it above her head, fervently sings the ringing "Marseillaise."

This is not an imaginary scene, nor one conceived in the mind of Rex Ingram, the director of the picture, but actually occurred at Ciro's cafe in Paris. The singer, Rose Dione, though a professional vocalist, was not attached to the cafe cabinet, but happened to be dining there with friends and the singing of the famous song was inspired by the thrill and excitement of the moment. As may be readily imagined, the singing of the "Marseillaise" under such conditions created a furor.

While the cast for the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" was being selected, Mlle. Dione was discovered in New York where she had come to fill a concert engagement, and Mr. Ingrass, who knew of the incident in Paris, induced her to go to California and appear in the scene which is so notably reproduced in the picture. As the scene is thrown upon the screen, the audience sees the French singer, who is pantomimically singing, but the real song is rendered by a living soloist, who stands close to the screen out of view of the audience, and synchronizes with the silent figure. It is a notable and thrilling climax to the scene, and never fails to win a big round of applause.

TO SERVE

To serve all of the people of this community with electricity for light, heat and power is our job.

It is a big job for it means that there must be light, heat for the ironing and cooking, power for the cleaning and washing—electricity, ready to perform any household task "on tap" whenever it is wanted in your home.

It also means that there must be light, heat and power sufficient for the needs of the factories of this community—when they want it. And the stores, offices, churches and public buildings must be supplied.

Then, too, it means the lighting of the streets and public ways, making them usable and safe at night the same as during the day.

Some job, isn't it?

But we have no complaint to make; we like our work. We have a loyal, earnest and happy organization of men and women—working to serve you.

We want your patronage—must have it, in fact—but we also want your friendly good will.
